The Keys to the House, Tree, and Person Paul Pitner, 2008-01-30      The Gospel Comes with a House Key Rosaria Butterfield, 2018-04-16 What did God use to draw a radical committed unbeliever to himself Did God take her to an evangelistic rally Or since she had her doctorate in literature did he use something in print No God used an invitation to dinner in a modest home from a humble couple who lived out the gospel daily simply and authentically With this story of her conversion as a backdrop Rosaria Butterfield invites us into her home to show us how God can use this same radical ordinary hospitality to bring the gospel to our lost friends and neighbors Such hospitality sees our homes as not our own but as God's tools for the furtherance of his kingdom as we welcome those who look think believe and act differently from us into our everyday sometimes messy lives helping them see what true Christian faith really looks like      House Keys Not Handcuffs Paul Boden, 2015 House Keys Not Handcuffs is a reflection on over 30 years of homeless organizing in San Francisco It is an attempt to sort out what went well and what did not as a community begins to organize in order to hold public and private institutions accountable Its purpose is not only to distill the lessons we have learned but to encourage others to document and reflect on their own experiences in the hope that we can collectively contribute to a stronger more broadly based movement The book draws from the insights of Paul Boden whose own experiences on the street as an activist and as a co founder of the Coalition on Homelessness and later the Western Regional Advocacy Project WRAP give him a unique and wide perspective It is a voice for people who have no power or privilege except for their capacity to organize and demand social justice Additional essays by friends and longtime allies Art Hazelwood and Bob Prentice round out the book It also includes 67 images created by printmakers painters muralists cartoonists and photographers giving a history of the art made in the struggle Homelessness is a visible manifestation of a society that is lacking in justice We offer House Keys Not Handcuffs in the hope that it will help re invigorate a social justice movement in this country that respects all of us as human beings and ensures that all people have a right to exist and a place to live as basic human rights      Lord Sunday Garth Nix, 2010 The fantastic conclusion to Garth Nix's New York Times bestselling series On the seventh day there was a choice The House is falling apart and when it is destroyed all existence will be destroyed with it Arthur Penhaligon and his friends Leaf and Suzy are caught in the chaos separated by events but drawn together in their fight to survive They must use every power at their disposal magical or practical to defeat the enemies attacking them from all sides For Arthur the most formidable challenge comes from Lord Sunday the most elusive of the Trustees of the Will Lord Sunday's magic is unlike anything Arthur has encountered before and his secrets have the potential to destroy not only Arthur but also all the people he holds dear On Monday Arthur Penhaligon was just an ordinary boy thrust into an extraordinary situation From Tuesday to Saturday he emerged as the Rightful Heir to the Architect who created everything within the House Now on Sunday he will face a choice of astonishing proportions and a remarkable conclusion to a completely unforeseen adventure      The House
